

ALEJANDRO WERNER

Founding director of the Georgetown Americas Institute. Former director, Western Hemisphere Department, IMF (2013 – 2021)

-
- Assumed his position as Director of the Western Hemisphere Department of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) in January 2013
 - Has had distinguished careers in the public and private sectors as well as in academia
 - Served as Undersecretary of Finance and Public Credit of Mexico (2006–2010)
 - Head of Corporate and Investment Banking at BBVA-Bancomer
 - Director of Economic Studies at the Bank of Mexico
 - Professor at ITAM, Instituto de Empresa, and Yale University
-

Alejandro Werner, who completed nine years as director of the Western Hemisphere Department at the International Monetary Fund, has been named the founding director of the new Georgetown Americas Institute (GAI).

A Mexican citizen, Mr. Werner has had distinguished careers in the public and private sectors as well as in academia. He served as Undersecretary of Finance and Public Credit of Mexico (December 2006–August 2010) and Head of Corporate and Investment Banking at BBVA-Bancomer (August 2011 until end-2012). Previously, he was Director of Economic Studies at the Bank of Mexico and Professor at ITAM, Instituto de Empresa, and Yale University. He has published widely. Mr. Werner was named Young Global Leader by the World Economic Forum in 2007.

Mr. Werner received his Ph.D. from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1994...

TEMAS

Alejandro Werner tailors each presentation to the needs of his audience and is not limited to the topics we have listed below:

- Global economic outlook
- Latin American economic outlook
- México
- U.S. – Latin American relations

CONDICIONES

- Travels from: Washington DC, USA
 - Fee Range: Please Inquire
-